

Cornwall Cricket Board

Time To Listen Course

(Child Welfare Course)
Essential for Club Mark Accreditation

The 'Time To Listen' course aims to outline roles and responsibilities for welfare officers, give an overview of legalisation, roles of external agencies, increase awareness of harmful behaviour to children & young people and to outline principles of working with children and young people.

All Cricket Clubs need to have a Child Welfare Officer. All Child Welfare Officers need to be trained on the Time to Listen course. This is a prerequisite of the Cornwall Cricket Board, The Cornwall Cricket League and the ECB. Any Child Welfare Officer who has not attended a Time to Listen training needs to book a place. Please be aware that places are limited so please book early. Essential for those clubs doing CLUB MARK!

Please complete this form to reserve a place on one of the courses listed below.

Cost will be £25 per Welfare Officer

Date of course – Tuesday 21st April 2009 Time – 6:30 – 9:30pm

Venue – St Austell Cricket Club
Wheal Eliza
Bethal
St Austell
Cornwall

Name _____

Address _____

Postcode _____ Tel: _____

Club _____

Please forward this form with the fee (A place will not be reserved without receipt of payment!) to the address below. Cheques payable to 'Cornwall Cricket Board'.

Joe Skinner Cricket Development Manager

Cornwall Sports Partnership, Penweathers Centre, Tresawls Road, Truro, Cornwall, TR1 3LD. Please print of this form and Send to address above. Please pass on this form to other interested Child Welfare officers.

www.cornwall-cricket.org.uk