

The Cornwall Association of Cricket Officials had a season-record 19 successful candidates in the recent course held at the Cornwall Cricket Centre. The new members include both the Panel's first-ever female umpire (Leanne Sawle) as well as the youngest at 14 (Philip Nicholas).

As many as 15 of the recruits have said that they will umpiring some games for the Panel over the summer which is excellent news for all in Cornish Cricket. If you want to know more about the courses which CACO offers, including interactive sessions at your local club, contact cornwallumpires@gmail.com.

CACO Chairman Derek Head congratulates some of the new recruits: Prasad Godbole, Neil Harvey, Mark Lister, Martin Rolfe, Philip Nicholas, Nick Blandford and Leanne Sawle.
